

Althea Headley

Mrs. Althea Headley has years of experience as a banker. She worked her way up from teller at the Duke Street branch of the now defunct Century National Bank to Manager of the Ocho Rios and Mandeville branches.

She migrated to Chicago, USA after marrying her husband Bernard in 1995. She worked at LaSalle Bank as a Personal Banker and at the mega payroll entity, Automatic Data Processing (ADP), as Senior Benefit Service representative.

Mrs. Headley returned home in 2000. For a while she and her husband operated a nursing home.

Mrs. Headley went to Ardenne High School and is a graduate of the Faculty of Arts and General Studies, University of the West Indies (Mona). She holds a Master of Science degree in Management and Human Resources from National-Louis University.

She has spent most of her time caring for her family—husband Bernard and two sons, Zachary and Kamal— and volunteering for various civic, school and church activities.
