

Title: Board Vice-Chair

ORVILLE BECKFORD has joint appointments as lecturer in the Department of Psychology, Sociology and Social Work at the University of the West Indies, Mona, and with the UWI's School of Education. He is the recipient of the UWI Faculty of Social Sciences 2012-2013 "Excellence in Teaching" award. He holds a B. Sc (Hons) in Management Studies, a MBA (Dist) in Finance and a Certificate in University Teaching (CUTL) from the UWI. He is a finalising Ph.D. candidate at the UWI. He does volunteer teaching of Caribbean Advanced Proficiency Exam (CAPE) Sociology and Caribbean Studies at both Kingston College and Eltham High School. His research interests are in education and institutional research, community, the inner city, industrial sociology and cultural studies.