

Kay-Ann L. Henry, MSc.

Miss Kay-Ann Henry serves as the Administrative & Operations Manager at the UWI Development and Endowment Fund (UWIDEF), which is a registered charitable organization with a mandate to enhance the UWI Mona community. This is accomplished through various initiatives including funding for research and the provision of scholarships and food grants for students. This work is in line with her passion for service, which over the years has emboldened her to also give of her skills, expertise and time voluntarily to several organizations including: the Ministry of Justice (Restorative Justice Unit), the Department of Correctional Services, her church and various fundraising initiatives.

Miss Henry has extensive research experience and shares authorship in the publication of a journal article on temporary migration work programmes and is working toward the publication of other research papers. She recently earned her Master of Science degree in Applied Social Psychology at the University of the West Indies, where she also gained her Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology with a minor in Criminology (Hons.). Miss Henry also has training in Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP) and Mental Emotional Release (MER) techniques, both of which are geared toward the improvement of individuals and organizations.

With a firm belief in self-evolution, Miss Henry is also an avid reader with interests in, among other fields: positive psychology, self-improvement and motivation. She endeavours using her career to make significant contributions to forensic psychology, restorative justice and criminology.

She is family centred with a great compassion for animals, especially her rescued dogs (Kiyoshi and Ginger).
